Disclaimer

The layouts and contents of the JRC QSAR Model Database have been prepared very carefully. If errors are brought to our attention, we will try to correct them. Please send your comments to JRC-COMPUTOX@ec.europa.eu. However, neither the European Commission nor any person acting on behalf of the Commission is responsible for the use that might be made of the information contained herein. Therefore, the Commission accepts no responsibility or liability whatsoever with regard to the material of the database service and more generally on the website.

This information is:

- of a general nature only and is not intended to address the specific circumstances of any particular individual or entity;
- not necessarily comprehensive, complete, accurate or up to date;
- sometimes linked to external sites over which the Commission services have no control and for which the Commission assumes no responsibility;
- not a professional or legal advice (if you need specific advice, you should always consult a suitably qualified professional).

Please note that it cannot be guaranteed that a document available on-line exactly reproduces an officially adopted text. Only the Official Journal of the European Union (its printed edition, or, since first July 2013, its electronic edition made available on the EUR-Lex website), is authentic and produces legal effects.

It is our goal to minimize disruption caused by technical errors. However some data or information on our site may have been created or structured in files or formats that are not error-free and we cannot guarantee that our service will not be interrupted or otherwise affected by such problems. The Commission accepts no responsibility with regard to such problems incurred as a result of using this site or any linked external sites.

Moreover, no responsibility is taken by the Commission for document(s) provided by third parties on the Internet naming our service, but are not originating from the JRC QSAR Model Database.

This disclaimer is not intended to limit the liability of the Commission in contravention of any requirements laid down in applicable national law nor to exclude its liability for matters which may not be excluded under that law.

Personal Data Protection

The European Union is committed to user privacy. The policy on "protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions" is based on Regulation (EC) N° 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000. This general policy covers the European Union's family of institutional Web Sites, within the EU domain. The current web based service treats your personal information according to the policy described in the Privacy Statement indicated below.

All personal data are provided on a voluntary basis by authors and are used to include, with permission of the QMRF author, their contact details in the QSAR Model descriptions.

You can be assured that your data are stored in conformity with the privacy policy indicated above and that the provisions of the EU Regulation are applied.

Linking Policy

The website provides links to third party sites. These links cover databases and information services in the same subject area.

Absolutely, no personal data exchange or information on the proposed method will occur with these sites. These sites are listed only to provide you with potentially useful links. However, we will have no control over them and, thus, we encourage you to review their privacy policies.
